

TIMELY WARNING

SCE Wilshire Center

June 11, 2014

On Wednesday, June 11, 2014, a sexual battery was reported to Fullerton College Campus Safety. A female was groped as she was walking north on Lemon Street toward Chapman Avenue, adjacent to the School of Continuing Education (SCE) Wilshire Auditorium. The victim screamed, causing the suspect to run, get in his car and drive away. The suspect was last seen driving away from parking lot 10.

The suspect was described as:

Male, Hispanic, 18-20 years old, 5'10, black, spiked hair, with slim build, solid back or navy blue T-shirt and jeans.

The suspect's car was described as:

Newer-looking Nissan Altima, four-door, light silver color, without tinted windows.

Campus Safety will continue to patrol the area and anyone with additional information is asked to contact the Fullerton Police Department at 714.738.6715.

SCE takes safety very seriously and encourages all students, faculty and staff to report incidents and/or suspicious behavior immediately.

In an emergency (life threatening) situation, dial 911 first and have someone nearby contact Campus Safety (714.992.7777).

Students, staff and faculty are reminded to walk in groups, utilize Campus Safety escorts, or utilize the blue emergency phones located throughout the campus and campus parking lots. Campus Safety emergency direct phone numbers:
